1. I met with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to discuss policy decisions regarding the handling of our employees in Saigon and their dependents. No final decisions were reached. The consensus, however, is contained in a Memorandum for the Record dated 5 March 1965 written by [REDACTED].

2. [REDACTED] reported that [REDACTED] has learned through [REDACTED] that, when Lt. General Joseph Carroll, Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency, testified before an Appropriations Committee on 25 February, he emphasized the necessity of having his own communications system because of security, etc. I understand that this was the day before a budget presentation by the Defense Communications Agency. When DIA returns the edited transcript to the Appropriations Committee, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] will be permitted to read it. We can then decide whether we need to be concerned about this matter.
